SEK-CAP Will Stop Accepting Applicants for Tenant Based Rental Assistance Program After 4:00pm Friday September 2nd, 2022

GIRARD, KS – The Southeast Kansas Community Action Program (SEK-CAP), one of the recipients of Tenant Based Rental Assistance (TBRA) grant, will not accept applications for the TBRA program after 4:00pm on Friday, September 2nd, 2022. SEK-CAP has received sufficient eligible applications to meet the funding capacity for this grant year. SEK-CAP will issue another press release to notify the public when the application process and waiting list is reopened.

Grants are awarded through the Kansas Housing Resources Corporation. The TBRA program assists qualifying individuals and families with rental subsidies and/or security and utility deposits. The SEK-CAP TBRA Program funding is used specifically to address the housing needs of those who are homeless or about to become homeless in the SEK-CAP twelve county southeast Kansas service area.

For more information about this program, please visit www.sek-cap.com/services/housing or call (620)724-8204. This is an Equal Housing Opportunity.
